

MY FAVOURITE MOVIE SCENE

My favourite movie scene takes place in a movie called "Green Book". Green book was directed by Peter Farrelly in 2018. Its two main actors are Viggo Mortensen (Tony Vallelongha / Tony Lip) and Mahershala Ali (Don Shirley).

Its my favourite movie scene because it deals about one of the worst problems of society, peer pressure. Social acceptance or peer pressure is the main reason why people throw hate to each other. Everyone is different but some people are too much different, that's the main point of the scene, Don Shirley isn't accepted by the white people, he behaves like them, but he looks different; it also isn't accepted by the black people, he looks like them, but he behaves different.
